Caliber Collision Expands Into Oklahoma

Caliber Acquires Three New Shops in the Oklahoma City Area

LEWISVILLE, TX – July 20, 2012 – Continuing its rapid expansion focused on customer needs, Caliber Collision Centers announced today the acquisition of three new centers in the Oklahoma City area.

“Caliber Collision is proud to announce our entry into a new, contiguous market with the acquisition of three new locations in Oklahoma,” said Steve Grimshaw, Caliber Collision Centers’ Chief Executive Officer. “Our clients continue to request that Caliber expand into new markets like Oklahoma to aid them in delivering greater customer service with the operational consistency they require in today’s competitive insurance market.”

Caliber Collision’s newly acquired 7,000 square foot collision repair facility in northwest Oklahoma City will open for business next Monday at 8020 NW Expressway, Oklahoma City, OK 73162. Caliber Collision’s newly acquired 10,500 square foot facility in Midwest City, Oklahoma will also open for business next Monday at 751 W. Curtis Drive, Midwest City, OK 73110. The newly acquired Edmond location is currently being renovated and is scheduled to open in late October at 3501 South Broadway Extension, Edmond, OK 73013.
