Caliber Collision Continues Arizona Expansion With New Tempe Opening

Caliber Announces Eighth Arizona Acquisition and Grand Opening

LEWISVILLE, TX – August 27, 2012 – Further accelerating its growth plans focused on customer needs, Caliber Collision Centers announced today that it has acquired Elite Collision in Tempe, Arizona.

“Today’s Tempe acquisition and grand opening increases our Arizona locations to eight as we continue executing our 2012 expansion plans,” said Steve Grimshaw, Caliber Collision Centers’ Chief Executive Officer. “This new center provides additional Caliber Collision capacity in the Tempe market while providing our insurance clients the customer focus, operational consistency and cost management they require in today’s competitive insurance market.”

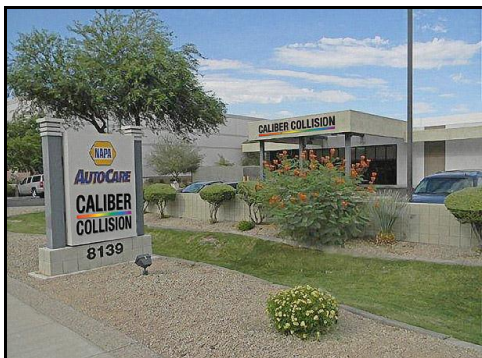

Caliber Collision’s newly acquired 25,000 square foot collision repair facility opened today at 8139 South Priest Drive, Tempe, Arizona.

“Our newest Arizona location provides yet another example of how we continue to grow across the Arizona market as the collision repair provider of choice,” added Mark Sanders, Chief Operating Officer for Caliber Collision Centers. “Today’s grand opening brings the total number Caliber Collision locations to 111 as we restore the rhythm of our customer’s lives across Arizona, Nevada, California, Texas, and Oklahoma.”
