CALIBER COLLISION CENTERS JOINS COLLISION REPAIR EDUCATION FOUNDATION'S INDUSTRY LEADERSHIP CIRCLE THROUGH $10,000 DONATION – PROVIDING LOCAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

Hoffman Estates, IL – November XX, 2011 – Caliber Collision Centers has joined the Collision Repair Education Foundation's Industry Leadership Circle donor recognition group through a $10,000 donation. This donation will help provide educational support to post-secondary collision students at Universal Technical Institute in Houston and Sacramento this spring.

"We are proud to support collision repair students at Universal Technical Institute in Houston and Sacramento who will become the future leaders of the collision repair industry," stated Mark Sanders, Caliber Collision Centers Chief Operating Officer. "Through the Collision Repair Education Foundation, we are committed to becoming a leader in supporting collision repair students throughout California, Arizona, Nevada and Texas as we continue to grow into the collision repair provider of choice in every community we serve."

Collision Repair Education Foundation Executive Director Scott Kruger said, "Thanks to Caliber Collision Centers for supporting the Collision Repair Education Foundation and joining our efforts in supporting collision repair school programs and their students. Through Caliber's donation, educational opportunities for local collision students will be enhanced. The Industry Leadership Circle donor recognition designation highlights the extraordinary commitment of industry organizations and individuals to investing in the future of the industry. We welcome Caliber Collision Centers to this group of industry leaders."
